

NETWORK TRAINING

Keep Them Safe Sessions

Network of Community Activities is pleased to announce 14 new sessions outlining the changes to the NSW Child Protection Legislation in 2010.

These sessions will be tailored to OOSH services and will highlight the unique scenarios that arise in our sector. The session will cover the changes to the legislation, using the Mandatory Reporting Guide, information exchange, sector specific scenarios and give participants opportunities for question and answer.

Numbers are limited for each session - please book ASAP.

Morning tea will be served at each session.

This information session is also available through our customised training program (additional costs will apply).
